25 YEAR RE-REVIEW

IN REPLY REFER TO: NMWP

LIBRARIAN
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear [redacted]

I am enclosing for review by CIA a copy of a list of German records in the custody of the National Archives that will be restituted to the Federal Republic of Germany in July. As you know, the purpose of the review is to see whether CIA desires that any of the original records be held back for a while, either because the originals were not micro-filmed or the microfilm copies which the National Archives has made cannot serve as a substitute for the originals.

I shall appreciate being informed in writing whether CIA wishes us to retain any of these records temporarily and for how long a period.

If any organizational element of CIA wishes more information about the records or what portions have been filmed, contact can be made with me.

Sincerely yours,

Philip P. Brower

Frank,
note last para

- we need more detailed

seven brief, one-line statements concerning 235 m. ft of records.
Inasmuch as I know Brower and have you ask [redacted]

that I'll come over and examine the records.
